2. Police received a call from the victim stating he had been sexually assaulted by a MALE the previous night and he was now on scene at the Barking Dog Public House.

On arrival police spoke with [X1] who stated that his ex partner PORT had given him poppers and alcohol the previous night and then had anal sex with him against his will. [X1] stated that PORT kept plying him with poppers and alcohol each time he refused to have sex with him until [X1] was unable to say no.

The couple have been in a relationship with each other for approximately 2 years. they do have a sexual relationship in which they do have consensual anal sex. However, [X1] states that on a few occasions he has felt pressured into sexual activity and that this is not the first time PORT has used drugs and alcohol to "take advantage" of [X1]

He stated that the incident last night took place in the living room area of PORT's home address.

[X1] had visited the address with the intention to have a drink watch a film and spend the night but he had not intended to have sex on this occasion.

Whilst being dealt with by police, [X1] was very highly emotional and stated that he wished to slit his throat. he also stated that he could hear voices and wanted to die. He began to punch out at objects and asked police to handcuff him for his own protection. Due to his agitated state he was handcuffed and taken out to the police car to speak to him. [X1] was so highly emotional that he
