

Continuation of Statement of: Kiera Brennan.....

small detail could change it all. We were asking if the judge actually knew the background to the story. They just said they know what they're doing.

When it finished we went to talk to DC O'Donnell again. We were quite upset as Port only got 4 months. He said stop asking questions, you'll never get the answers. DC O'Donnell said 'look China only 2 people know what happened that night and one of them is dead'. The other man was trying to back him up but didn't talk too much.

I feel like the police listened to what Port had to say and went with it. After that it all died down, we had to accept there wasn't much more we could do.

We were aware Anthony's parents didn't know what Anthony was doing; that Anthony was having sex for money. His Dad didn't even know he was gay. We had to tell them Anthony had gone to meet someone for a date. The police said if the parents needed to know they would go up with us to Hull, but they ended up telling them anyway without us. Anthony's Dad then ended up calling me upset and confused. I'm not sure how long after the trial this was. It was a while after.

We were constantly banging on about the drugs and checking for drugs. When we told them categorically that he wouldn't take drugs with a client they said you don't know what people would do that you don't know about. He was found with a bottle of GHB in his pocket. Initially I was told it was poppers, or thought it was poppers. They tried to tell us that poppers and GHB are the same thing, which they aren't. This most likely came from DC O'Donnell. I can't remember whether he told me or he told China. I knew that GHB was dangerous because Anthony had told me. I told the police they were different. They told us they'd checked for obvious drugs but China was pushing for them to look whether GHB was present. DC O'Donnell told me that Port had said Anthony put a white powder in his drink. I asked what it was. He fobbed it off, he didn't answer me.

I was looking on the Barking and Dagenham post after that and saw two other boys had been found. Daniel and Gabriel. China called me and said he'd done it again following

Signature: Signature

..... Signature witnessed by: Signature