

181. It was Sharon Port's belief that her brother's custodial sentence was in connection with this body and she was unaware of his involvement with any other death.
182. Sharon Port dates this call about the dead body in his flat from her brother as approximately 2 weeks after she started her new job on the 11th August 2015 and repeated this evidence in the criminal trial, re-iterating that she was sitting in her car in the car park of her new job meaning that the call was in the days around 25th August 2015.
183. Due to the passage of time, Operation Lilford was unable to obtain mobile telephone data in relation to Gabriel Kovari and none was available from the original investigation.
184. The mobile telephone handset and SIM in use by Gabriel Kovari at this time have never been located and have never re-joined a mobile network.
185. Operation Lilford was unable to secure any evidence or information to provide further detail of Mr Kovari's movements between him last being seen alive late on 24th August 2014 at 62 Cooke Street and being found deceased in the early morning of 28th August 2014 within the Abbey Grounds. Nor was Operation Lilford able to secure any evidence to provide further detail of the time or place of Mr Kovari's death

Movements of Stephen Port

186. Operation Lilford could not secure any solid evidence of Port's movements around the time of meeting Mr Kovari until his death. However, some suggestion as to Port's whereabouts can be drawn from other evidence secured by the investigation.
187. Just after midnight into 23rd August 2014 Port was using his laptop to send messages on the Fitlads website, suggesting that he was at home.
188. At line 372 of KMA/6<sup>58</sup> Gabriel Kovari tells Karl Kamgdon that he cannot move into 62 Cooke Street until after 10.30pm on the 23rd August 2014, which would

---

<sup>58</sup> IPC000738