TP Borough Commander
Statement of Expectations

This document outlines the expectations we have of the role of Borough Commander.

Context

You are the senior leader of policing in a London Borough. You will proactively assess and manage risk. You are responsible for the delivering day to day local policing services and for performance outcomes including victim satisfaction and local confidence.

You will lead the implementation of the Local Policing Model and develop a modern policing culture.

You are accountable for the management of critical incidents, local partnership arrangements, and the MPS 'on call' duties at the rank of 'Superintendent'.

Your leadership will be visible, intrusive, and supportive.

Service Delivery

You will deliver our service commitment through the Local Policing Model:

- A fully functional "Grip" and "Pace" centre
- A 24/7 Emergency Response and Patrol team to respond to I&S calls within target times; patrol and ANPR intercept
- Neighbourhood Policing Teams who will deliver local policing services to and across Wards, made up of PCs, PCSOs, MSC and volunteers
- A Uniform Borough Tasking Team who are visible and accessible and will provide additional capability for our "war on crime"
- Local investigative capability to investigate both violent and volume crime, including a proactive team and forensic conversion unit, and the capability to maximise the opportunities from CCTV and financial investigation (POCA)
- A public protection function delivered through a Community Safety Unit and MASH (when approved and supported with Partnership for implementation)
- On gangs boroughs, an effectively tasked "Gangs and Proactive Team" with identified staff responsible for co-ordination with the Central Gangs Unit
- An Integrated Offender Management Process
- A Senior Leadership Team and support function
- A leadership culture that drives and achieves victim satisfaction, crime reductions
