This statement refers to an incident where I arrived home to discover a number of police outside the block of flats where I live in Barking. On Wednesday 18th June 2014 I was working at Tesco, Purfleet, Essex. I work night shift and my hours are from 10pm till 6am. I was given a lift home by a work colleague who dropped me off by a bus stop close to my home address. On arriving home, 62 COOKE STREET, BARKING I immediately noticed a large police presence. I approached the cordon and spoke to a male police officer. I explained to this officer I lived at number 62 COOKE STREET, BARKING and needed to access the property, I was tired and just wanted to sleep. I asked the officer what had happened, he told me that a male had been found unconscious outside the block where I live. He indicated towards a white tent. I became concerned it was my flat mate Steven or my girlfriends Brother X10 I asked the officer to describe the male as I thought the person in the tent could have been one of them. The officer was able to describe the male to me, from this I was recognise it was neither Steven nor X10 Initially I was relieved but also sad for the family and friends of the male who had been found. I asked the police officer if I could go into the flat but was told I should wait while he sought advice. I waited for about one hour, while waiting I was having general conversation with the police officer. After waiting I was advised that police had been trying to locate my flat mate Steven, they had been unable to contact him and needed to speak with him. I told him Steven was probably in the flat asleep. I told the officer I had the key and could check the property. I went with the police officer into the flat and found Steven asleep in his bed, I woke him, immediately his eyes opened and he appeared alert. I told him that police were in the flat and needed to talk to him. I could see Steven was wearing his usual ¾ length nightwear trousers. Steven spoke with the police officers while I potted around the flat making Tea for everyone. I heard Steven speaking with the police officer, telling them he returned home around 4am and found a male slumped, unconscious in the communal entrance to the block 59-70. I heard Steven go on to say that he had propped this male against the wall, called for an ambulance and then went into the flat to sleep.
